List of Pooja items for Ganesh Chaturthi

Ganesh Chaturthi is one of the most important Hindu festivals, celebrated every year to mark the birth of Lord Ganesha, the God of wisdom and good fortune. Every home welcomes a ganesh idol in their homes and worships the idol for 10 days, until it is immersed in water. Ganesh Chaturthi is an auspicious occasion where people prepare their respective homes for the pooja and festivities. Here is a comprehensive list of items you will need to conduct the pooja for Ganesh Chaturthi at home.

- Ganesha idol – The first and foremost aspect of the pooja is the ganesha idol. Choose an eco friendly ganesh murti made of clay to worship, instead of the typical plaster-of-paris ones that harm our planet.
- Sandli – It is a piece of sandalwood that is used to carry the idol.
- Two red cloths – These red cloths are required to cover the idol as well as the sandli.

- Incense sticks – ‘Aggarbatti’ and ‘dhoop’ are essential for starting the pooja. Choose aromatic incense sticks for a holy, fragrant ambience.
- Earthen lamps – ‘Diyas’ and oil and ghee lamps are lit for the pooja.
- Betel leaves and nuts – Betel leaves play an important role in the worship of Lord Ganesha.
- Uncooked rice, turmeric, saffron and sandalwood paste – This sacred paste is used in the worship process.
- Offerings – After the idol is installed, offerings of fresh fruits and red flowers, sweets and modaks, are made to the idol. Make sure to get loads of fresh fruits and flowers to serve in the worship
- Water – A metal container filled with water is essential.
- Coconut – Finally, a coconut to break in front of the idol at the end of the worship.
